

WINE CELLAR

THE
DINNINGTON DOCKS

THE
DINNINGTON DOCKS

Welcome to The Dinnington Docks Wine Cellar.

Wine has always been an important part of what we do. Working alongside trusted wine experts and producers, we have brought together a collection of wines chosen for their quality, individuality and sense of place. From renowned classic regions to exciting discoveries from around the world, this cellar reflects our belief that great wine should be interesting, approachable and, above all, enjoyable.

Many of these wines will be showcased through our Food Society evenings and events, allowing guests to experience them alongside thoughtfully matched dishes before enjoying them at home.

We hope you enjoy exploring the collection and discovering a few new favourites along the way.

Matthew

SOVEREIGN WINES
INDEPENDENT MERCHANT

WINE CELLAR

SPARKLING

|   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Bottle  |
|---|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------|
| 1 | Dopff & Irion Cremant Blanc de Blancs, Alsace, France NV (V+)Lovely pale gold colour with very fine bubbles. Complex nose of subtle spice, white peach and quince, followed by a refreshing palate of citrus and almond notes.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | £18.00  |
| 2 | Beaumont de Crayères Grand Meunier Extra Brut Blanc de Noir, Champagne, France (V)Bright golden colour with straw yellow tints and delicate threads of glistening bubbles. The rich and fresh nose exudes notes of greengages underpinned by honey, butter and brioche. The palate is creamy, fruity, intense and precise with notes of peach, plum, pear and candied red fruit. Elegant, fresh and honeyed finish.                                                                                                                                                                                                | £47.00  |
| 3 | Nyetimber Rosé Multi-Vintage, West Sussex, England (V+)This beautiful sunset-pink Multi-Vintage rosé has us dreaming of long, sunny days. Offering a unique combination of aromas, including British summer fruits and shortbread. Its creamy, round texture and refreshing redcurrant, raspberry and cherry flavours give it an elegant and silky finish.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | £42.00  |
| 4 | Nyetimber Blanc de Blancs, West Sussex, England (V+)Aromas of freshly squeezed lemon, pink apple and white blossom lead into alluring notes of shortbread and crème fraîche. Fresh orchard and citrus fruits follow through on the palate, where they are accompanied by ripe greengage and an unmistakable flinty, mineral character.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | £49.00  |
| 5 | Nyetimber Tillington Single Vineyard, West Sussex, England (V+)Pale gold in colour with very fine bubbles. Intense aromas of raspberry, red apple skin and rose petal. The textured palate is both vibrant yet refined, revealing layers of orange zest, raspberry, apricot and marzipan. Opulent fruit and complex biscuit characters persist in a long, mouthwatering finish.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | £102.00 |
| 6 | Pol Roger Brut Reserve, Champagne, France (V+)Rich nose, deep and opulent - there is cream, tropical fruit, brioche and toasty vanilla notes as well as nuances of white flowers and lemon sherbet - great elegance and a fine finish.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | £59.00  |
| 7 | Billecart-Salmon, Brut Sous Bois, Champagne, France (O,V+)Billecart-Salmon Brut Sous Bois is an elegant, oak-vinified Champagne with a radiant golden hue and fine, persistent bubbles. The nose unfolds rich, layered aromas of citrus, orchard fruits, brioche and pastry, interwoven with subtle malt, mocha and spice. On the palate it's creamy yet fresh, with complex flavors of grilled brioche, light toffee, toasted nuts and citrus zest — all balanced by vibrant acidity and refined texture.                                                                                                         | £84.00  |
| 8 | Pol Roger, Cuvée Sir Winston Churchill, Champagne, FranceThis Prestige Cuvée was created as a tribute to Sir Winston Churchill, reflecting the qualities he sought in his champagne: a firm structure, a full-bodied character and relative maturity. The exact blend is a closely guarded family secret. Composed exclusively of grapes sourced from Grands Crus Pinot Noir and Chardonnay vineyards, this cuvée is produced in very small quantities and only in the very best vintages. Pinot Noir predominates, providing structure, breadth and firmness, while Chardonnay contributes elegance and subtlety. | £240.00 |
| 9 | Louis Roederer 'Cristal', Champagne, France (V+)Iconic champagne. Intense, refined and unfathomably complex. Apricot, white flowers and hazelnut wrapped around a citrus core supported by racy acidity and a flavour intensity that lasts forever. Memorable.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | £320.00 |

FRANCE

Bottle

- 10      Organic Jean Becker Pinot Blanc, Alsace, France (O,V+)      £22.00
A gracefully rounded white from organic vineyards in Zellenberg, this Pinot Blanc opens with delicate floral and orchard-fruit aromatics—pear, apple and white peach—carried on a creamy, smooth mid-palate. Subtle spice and pepper weave in, leading to a crisp, refreshing finish with hints of citrus and gentle flint.

BURGUNDY - WHITE

Bottle

- 11      Bourgogne Aligote Les Classique, Vignerons de Mancy, Burgundy, France (V)      £18.00
Classic Aligoté; light and fresh with aromas of juicy grapes, green apples and hints of citrus. Lively and fresh on the palate balanced by delicate acidity and minerality.
- 12      Château du Charnay Mâcon-Villages, Burgundy, France (V+)      £18.00
Medium straw colour leading with citrus aromas and the freshness of green apple. Delightful touches of exotic fruits, citrus and white flowers on the palate. Fresh, long and good complexity.
- 13      Domaine Seve Bourgogne Blanc, Burgundy, France (V+)      £21.00
Lovely aromas of white nectarine, lemon, blossom and peaches. Lightly creamy on the palate with racy, mineral acidity. Well-balanced with a steely, lingering finish. A great easy-drinking Burgundy!
- 14      Saint Véran, Domaine Gonon, Burgundy, France (V)      £23.50
In the glass, it presents a pale golden hue with green reflections. The nose is greeted with delicate floral aromas, hints of peach, pear and honeysuckle. On the palate, it is dry, round and crisp with flavours of pear and citrus, supported by appealing green apple acidity and a fantastic length.
- 15      Chablis, Montmains 1er Cru, Brocard, Burgundy, France (V+)      £34.00
Spicy notes - classic flint and citrus fruit aromas followed by a subtle palate showing beautiful minerality and notes of lemon. A creamy and supple texture with a satisfying finish and rich honey aftertaste.
- 16      Chablis Grand Cru Les Blanchots, Brocard, Burgundy, France (V+)      £67.00
A top vintage for white burgundy and especially Chablis. Wonderfully complex nose of citrus fruit and white flowers and rich nutty flavours. Buttery creamy palate with a slight saltiness. Flavour intensity seems to go on forever.
- 17      Chassagne Montrachet 1er Cru Morgeot Vignes, Bachey-Legros, Burgundy, France (V)      £70.00
This Premier Cru offers a luminous golden hue with a complex bouquet of ripe apple, pear and subtle citrus, complemented by nuances of toasted almond and a hint of vanilla. On the palate, it is rich and full-bodied, showcasing flavours of stone fruits and a touch of minerality, leading to a long, elegant finish.
- 18      Domaine Joseph Pascal Puligny-Montrachet, Burgundy, France (V+)      £85.00
Aromas of white peach, lemon blossom and crisp green apple rise gently from the glass, underscored by subtle hints of flint and toasted hazelnut. The palate is poised and textured with a fine mineral core and vibrant acidity that carries through to a long, elegant finish. Silky and focused, it beautifully reflects the chalky terroir of the region offering both tension and refinement in every sip.
- 19      Organic Rully, Montagne La Folie Blanc, Domaine Claude Jobard, Burgundy, France (O,V+)      £34.00
Pale gold hue, indicating its freshness and purity. Expressive bouquet featuring notes of white flowers, honey and citrus, complemented by subtle hints of toasted almonds and floral undertones. Full-bodied and creamy texture with flavours of lemon citrus and nutty nuances. The wine exhibits a rich and round mouthfeel, balanced by a beautiful freshness on the finish.

BURGUNDY - RED

Bottle

- 20      Albert Bichot Origines Bourgogne Pinot Noir, Burgundy, France (V+)      £23.50
This Pinot Noir opens with a fresh, fine nose featuring notes of black and red fruits like raspberry and blackcurrant. On the palate, it's fresh and fruity, offering a fleshy, supple texture that's well-balanced with a pleasing fruity finish.
- 21      Organic Rully La Chaume Rouge, Domaine Claude Jobard, Burgundy, France (O,V+)      £33.00
Brilliant ruby colour, reflecting its purity and elegance. Expressive bouquet of raspberry, blueberry and currant, complemented by subtle smoky and flinty nuances. Medium-bodied with soft, round tannins. Flavours of fresh red berries, including raspberry and strawberry, are prominent, with a gentle acidity that adds vibrancy. The finish is smooth, leaving a lingering impression of ripe fruit and delicate minerality.

- |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |        |
|----|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| 22 | Gevrey-Chambertin Vieilles Vignes, Domaine Rissignol-Trapet, Burgundy, France (V+) Aromatic, flinty dark berries with violet on the nose, blackberry fruit and exotic spice on the palate. Firm tannins with poised acidity. Substantial and tactile on the finish.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | £64.00 |
| 23 | Mercurey Agnes du Couedic, Burgundy, France (V+) The Mercurey Agnes du Couedic presents a bright garnet red hue. On the nose, it offers an intense and complex bouquet with aromas of red fruits such as cherries, raspberries and red currants, complemented by subtle oak nuances. A rich and oaky palate with a dense, chewy texture, sweet fruit flavours and a substantially satisfying profile.                                                                                                                               | £34.00 |
| 24 | Bachey-Legros Chassagne Montrachet Rouge Vieilles Vignes, Burgundy, France (V+) This wine exhibits beautiful purity of red and black fruits with a savoury edge. The powerful, silky tannins contribute to excellent flavour intensity, showcasing great balance and restraint.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | £40.50 |
| 25 | Organic Domaine Parent Bourgogne Côte d'Or, Burgundy, France (O,V+) From vines surrounding Pommard and Volnay, this opens beautifully in the glass, being perfumed and fresh. A ripe, succulent fruity wine, it has a fine texture and a bright, balanced finish.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | £42.00 |
| 26 | Domaine Jean Chauvenet, Nuits-Saint-Georges, Burgundy, France (V+) An expressive and structured red Burgundy, this Nuits-Saint-Georges opens with layered aromas of dark cherry, wild raspberry, dried herbs and forest. Hints of violet, iron rich earth and subtle oak spice unfold with air. The palate is sleek yet firmly built, offering a core of tart red fruit, mineral tension and fine-grained tannins. Serious, savory and long on the finish with cellaring potential that promises even greater complexity over time. | £50.00 |
| 27 | Organic Domaine Parent Beaune 1er Cru Les Epenottes, Burgundy, France (O,V+) A great ruby-burgundy colour with good depth. On the nose it has rich cherry fruit aromas. The palate is dominated by powerful juicy red fruit flavours, a rich mouthfeel and a big fruity finish.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | £55.00 |

LOIRE

Bottle

- |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |        |
|----|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| 28 | Sancerre Domaine Daulny, Loire, France (V+) Charming, aromatic and fresh with a grassy bouquet. Ripe fruit flavours of greengage and gooseberry with a dry, crisp finish. Classic Sauvignon Blanc in all its glory.                                       | £24.00 |
| 29 | Henri Bourgeois Menetou Salon, Loire, France (V) Grapefruit and grass on the nose with flavours of green apple and lime peel on the soft palate. Great minerality and a zesty finish. A fragrant example of a Loire white.                                | £27.50 |
| 30 | Pouilly-Fumé, Domaine Fines Caillottes, Jean Pabiot, Loire, France (V) Exquisite tropical fruit, fresh-cut grass and green apple aromas with a flinty touch. The palate is juicy, crisp and zesty with the creamy mineral vibrancy of an eternal classic. | £22.50 |
| 31 | Organic Château de Villeneuve Saumur Champigny, Loire, France (O,V+) Bright and fresh with juicy red cherry, hints of fresh cranberry and some crunchy vegetal notes typical of this style. Soft tannins and a finish that goes on and on.                | £24.00 |

BORDEAUX

Bottle

- |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |        |
|----|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| 32 | Château Argadens Blanc, Bordeaux, France (V+) With a spicy nose that is followed through to the palate, this is a full-bodied wood-aged wine. Nutmeg zing combines easily with the ripe yellow fruit and lime flavours. Long savoury finish.                                                           | £16.00 |
| 33 | Château Tour Bel Air, Montagne-Saint-Émilion, Bordeaux, France (V+) This wine showcases a clear, ruby-red hue. On the nose, it exudes fruity, jammy aromas with subtle vanilla notes. The palate is balanced and full-bodied, featuring soft tannins that lead to a harmonious and lasting aftertaste. | £18.00 |
| 34 | Château du Moulin Rouge Cru Bourgeois, Haut-Médoc, Bordeaux, France (V) Generous ripe black and red berry fruits alongside spice and oak. An intense palate with good concentration of fruits and elegant tannins.                                                                                     | £23.00 |
| 35 | Château d'Issan Blason d'Issan, Margaux, Bordeaux, France Vivid and bright bouquet, perfumed with dark cherry and blueberry notes, underscored by a hint of pencil lead. Medium-bodied with a silky texture, concealing a noteworthy structure leading to the finish.                                  | £34.00 |

|    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |        |
|----|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| 36 | Château St Georges Côte Pavie Grand Cru, Saint-Émilion, Bordeaux, FranceAromatically complex, very attractive, floral and spicy, there is tremendous depth here. The fruit is intense and ripe with sweetness, displaying true class.                                                                                                      | £47.00 |
| 37 | Château Chantalouette, Pomerol, Bordeaux, France (V)Charming nose of elegant plum and damson fruit with clove and cedar wood. Fine tannins and a core of blackcurrant and plum fruit amid good freshness and length.                                                                                                                       | £35.00 |
| 38 | Château Lafleur-Gazin, Pomerol, Bordeaux, France (V)A soft wine with attractive berry fruit, smoky acidity and sweet juicy flavours. Tertiary notes of leather and tobacco show great balance along with well-integrated tannins, a delicious ripe finish and lots of earthy undertones. A fabulous example of a prestigious Pomerol red.  | £55.00 |
| 39 | Château Batailley 5eme Grand Cru Classe, Pauillac, Bordeaux, France (V+)Very dark purple in colour with a hugely complex nose of sweet black fruits, raspberry coulis, cedar wood and smoky liquorice and fruit cake spice. Abundant sweet tannins with good body and balanced acidity. Very long finish. Plenty of ageing potential here. | £76.00 |

RHÔNE & SOUTH

Bottle

|    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |        |
|----|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| 40 | Château Vincens Origine Malbec, Cahors, France (V+)Strong, rich and structured red with elegant tannins and bursting with blackcurrant and damson fruit. Intense and ripe with a very long finish.                                                                                                                                                                                                 | £23.00 |
| 41 | Brotte Baies Dorées Viognier IGP, Rhône, FranceWith a unique aromatic range, including citrus flowers, exotic fruits, apricots, white-fleshed stone fruit and jasmine, this intensely fruity and well-balanced wine is mouthfilling, which works in harmony with the flavours of exotic fruit and toasted brioche.                                                                                 | £15.00 |
| 42 | Domaine Niero Condrieu Les Ravines, Northern Rhône, FranceThis Condrieu reveals fresh and pure aromas of white-fleshed fruits combined with delicate floral notes. The lively and harmonious palate is characterised by a beautiful body and a delicate, pure finish that truly expresses the minerality of the terroir.                                                                           | £56.00 |
| 43 | Domaine Garon Côtes du Rhône La Part des Vivants, Northern Rhone, FranceMade mainly with Syrah sourced from the northern Rhône and some Grenache and Carignan from the south of the region. The Syrah was aged for 8 months in oak barrels. Aromas of ripe red and black berry with notes of spice and dry herbs. Medium-bodied and vibrant on the palate with chewy tannins and a bright acidity. | £21.00 |
| 44 | Organic Châteauneuf-du-Pape, Domaine Font de Vent, Rhône, France (O,V+)Complex bouquet of cherries, blackberries, toasted herbs and liquorice. Fruit pours over the palate and the warming spiciness adds great depth and intrigue. Long lasting finish that benefits even more from an hour in the decanter before serving.                                                                       | £35.00 |
| 45 | Domaine Vincent Paris 'Granit 30' Cornas, Northern Rhône, FranceThe nose has an aromatic blackcurrant and wild berry aroma with black pepper and a lightly ferrous undertone. The palate brings pure, sweet hedgerow fruit and more pepper that extends into the finish. It is silky, fresh and approachable.                                                                                      | £41.00 |
| 46 | Domaine Garon St Joseph, Northern Rhône, FranceDeep ruby colour with notes of blackberry and black plum followed with deep notes of caramel and coconut. A lengthy and spiced finish with supple tannins throughout.                                                                                                                                                                               | £33.00 |
| 47 | Benières Grande Cuvée Chardonnay, Pays d'Oc, FrancePale yellow colour with golden hues. The nose offers vibrant aromas of ripe pear and white peach followed by notes of light vanilla and toasted buns. Rich on the palate with a good acidity, the finish is long and elegant with notes of ripe fruit and a hint of toasted hazelnut.                                                           | £13.00 |
| 48 | Immortelle, Côtes du Roussillon Villages, France (V+)The nose is complex with rich blackberries, spices and clove notes. The palate is fleshy and mouthfilling with attractive dark fruits, plum and powerful cassis notes. Overall it has a slight mineral character and fine supple structure that leads to fabulous complexity and a very long finish.                                          | £23.00 |

- |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |        |
|----|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| 49 | Château de Mille Rouge Célestine, Provence, France (O,V+) The Célestine Rouge is Château de Mille's flagship red, a deep ruby wine exuding vibrant aromas of ripe cherries (griotte), wild strawberry and Provence garrigue, layered with pepper and laurel. The palate is structured yet elegant, showcasing silky Grenache with Syrah freshness, firm tannins and a lasting spicy finish. | £26.50 |
|----|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|

GERMANY

Bottle

- |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |        |
|----|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| 50 | Villa Wolf Pinot Gris, Pfalz, Germany (V+) Lovely red ripe orchard fruit with underlying pear and peach characteristics. A far cry from run-of-the-mill Pinot Grigio; this is simply delicious.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | £16.00 |
| 51 | Walt Riesling, Pfalz, Germany (V+) Fantastically expressive peach flavours, balanced by a pristine acidity, followed through with a hint of apricot and a fresh core of citrus. Prolonged finish with subtle mineral notes.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | £14.00 |
| 52 | Domdechant Werner Trocken Guts Riesling, Rheingau, Germany (V+) This dry Riesling opens with invigorating aromas of grapefruit and quince, complemented by subtle hints of spring blossom and lemon zest. On the palate, it delivers a sleek, medium-bodied profile with juicy citrus and white peach flavours, underscored by a salty, stony minerality that adds depth and complexity. The finish is crisp and refreshing, leaving a lasting impression of elegance and purity. | £16.50 |
| 53 | Karl Johner Pinot Noir Kaiserstuhl, Baden, Germany (V+) A surprisingly voluptuous Pinot Noir, this has a lovely soft texture on the palate and aromas of dark berry and spices. Very soft tannins.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | £24.50 |

ITALY - WHITE

Bottle

- |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |        |
|----|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| 54 | Odulin Ribolla Gialla, Friuli, Italy Pale straw yellow with green reflections. Aromas of white blossom, lemon zest, crisp white fruit and a touch of spice lead into a balanced, refreshing palate with a clean, pleasantly persistent finish.                                                         | £15.00 |
| 55 | Organic Cortese Nostru Catarratto Lucido, Terre Siciliane, Italy (O,V+) A lightly spiced white with straw hues, a herbaceous character and minerality adding intensity to the palate. Stone fruit is also present, balancing flavours with the acidity. A long and nutty finish that lingers.          | £17.00 |
| 56 | Organic La Zerba Gavi di Tassarolo, Piedmont, Italy (O,V+) This Gavi presents a clear, brilliant straw-yellow hue. The nose is greeted with intense aromas of white flowers, peach, citrus fruits and pear. On the palate, it is fresh and soft with mineral sensations that add depth and complexity. | £20.00 |
| 57 | Organic Nittardi Ben Vermentino, Tuscany, Italy (O,V+) Offering delicately floral aromas of peach, honeydew melon and exotic fruits. The palate is creamy yet balanced with fresh citrus brightness and a saline-mineral finish that delivers both length and elegance.                                | £24.00 |

ITALY - RED

Bottle

- |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |        |
|----|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| 58 | Salice Salentino Rosso Riserva, Puglia, Italy (V+) A complex and balanced red. Cherry and red fruits with smoky undertones and a touch of tobacco. The tannins are light and balanced with appealing acidity.                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | £16.50 |
| 59 | Unmaredivino Oltremare Colli del Limbara, Sardinia, Italy A bold and aromatic red, Oltremare opens with heady aromas of wild berries, black cherry and plum jam, accented by notes of tobacco, menthol, and spice. The palate is round yet structured, with velvety tannins and a fine thread of acidity that lifts the richness. You'll notice hints of liquorice, smoke and well-integrated oak, leading to a lingering, savoury finish. | £50.00 |
| 60 | Lonardi, Valpolicella Classico DOC, Italy (V) Deep ruby red with beautifully defined wild cherries and blackberries. Fresh on the palate with medium body and supple tannins.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | £14.50 |
| 61 | Pavia Casareggio Barbera d'Asti, Piedmont, Italy Intense ruby red with black fruit aromas and subtle spices. A pleasing rusticity on the palate that finishes with balanced tannins and well-integrated oaky spiciness.                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | £19.00 |

|    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |        |
|----|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| 62 | Fabiano Amarone della Valpolicella DOCG, Italy (V+)Deep garnet colour, warm, elegant, richly complex; concentrated red fruits and velvety structure.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | £42.00 |
| 63 | Brunello di Montalcino, Col di Lamo, Tuscany, Italy (V+)A versatile red with hints of violet upon first nose. Intense nuances of dark berry and well-integrated tannins. Fairly full bodied with a great mouthfeel and peppery at the end.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | £52.50 |
| 64 | Vignamaggio Gherardino, Chianti Classico Riserva, Tuscany, ItalyRuby red with garnet highlights. Aromas of sour cherry, blackberry, ripe cherry, tobacco and spice lead into a full-bodied, balanced palate of forest fruits, supple tannins and a lingering liquorice finish.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | £29.00 |
| 65 | Organic Cortese Sabuci Cerasuolo, Terre Siciliane, Italy (O,V+)Fruit-driven with aromas of cherries, pomegranate and wild berries with hints of cocoa, leather and caramel. The palate is elegant and complex with concentrated flavours and ripe but firm tannins.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | £26.00 |
| 66 | Pelassa Barolo 'San Lorenzo di Verduno', Piedmont, ItalyIntense ruby red with garnet reflections, indicative of its ageing potential. On the nose, it reveals a complex bouquet of violets, red berries and cloves, complemented by subtle hints of cedar, leather and tobacco. On the palate, it is full-bodied and harmonious with flavours of ripe Morello cherry, liquorice and a touch of toasted hazelnut. The tannins are finely intertwined and well-balanced, leading to a persistent and elegant finish. | £52.00 |

SPAIN

Bottle

|    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |        |
|----|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| 67 | Rioja Vega Tempranillo Blanco, Spain (V+)This wine presents a straw-yellow colour with bright, glyceride reflections. The nose is complex and expressive, featuring intense notes of tropical fruits and white flowers, complemented by delicate hints of herbs. On the palate, it offers an unctuous and sweet attack, evolving into a harmonious balance with a subtly bitter, flavourful finish and smoky nuances.                                                        | £17.50 |
| 68 | Bodegas Aquitania Primera Albariño, Rias Baixas, Spain (V+)Clean, light and linear. Harmonious and subtle between orange blossom, honeysuckle and vanilla notes leaving a satisfying long taste of apples with a slight saltiness.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | £21.50 |
| 69 | Marquesa Valserrano Barrica Blanco, Rioja, Spain (V+)Intense yet elegant on the nose with aromas of elderflower and white fruits with herbal notes. Very smooth palate that is well balanced with refreshing acidity.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | £21.00 |
| 70 | Basa Rueda Blanco, SpainWonderful fruity and juicy wine with mouthfilling flavours of peaches and plums made by dynamic winemaker Telmo Rodriguez Aromatic. It is off-dry and highly praised for being the house wine at the world famous El Bulli for 9 years, during which time the 3 Michelin Star restaurant was voted best restaurant in the world.                                                                                                                     | £18.50 |
| 71 | Josep Grau Pedrabona Gratallops Vi de Vila, Priorat, Spain (V+)Pedrabona reveals a vibrant tapestry of red and black fruit—wild berries, cassis, blueberries—alongside slate-driven graphite and dark chocolate. Aromas of violets and balsamic Mediterranean herbs weave through forest floor. On the palate, it's medium-bodied and energetic with juicy acidity, creamy tannins, mineral backbone and a keen, expressive finish. A beautifully lithe yet intense Priorat. | £44.00 |
| 72 | Cap de Pera DO Montsant, Catalunya, Spain (V+)Rich and expressive with ripe blackberry, plum and cherry fruit layered with hints of wild herbs, spice and a touch of liquorice. Smooth and rounded on the palate with fresh acidity and soft tannins leading to a long, savoury finish.                                                                                                                                                                                      | £19.50 |
| 73 | Coto de Caleruega Tinto Roble, Ribera del Duero, SpainAn intense cherry red colour with violet reflections. The nose is dominated by aromas of red and black berries, accompanied by floral notes such as violets and a subtle hint of spice. On the palate, it is juicy, aromatic and smooth with gentle tannins and a harmonious interplay of fruit and oak.                                                                                                               | £20.00 |
| 74 | Valserrano Rioja Reserva, Rioja, SpainValserrano Reserva greets you with a classic Rioja profile—ripe cherry, blackberry, subtle mocha and cedar—layered with tobacco, vanilla and sweet spice. It's smooth and medium-bodied with harmonious tannins, a touch of balsamic complexity and a lingering, elegant finish. A well-balanced Rioja with real elegance and depth.                                                                                                   | £27.50 |

|    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |        |
|----|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| 75 | Valserrano Gran Reserva Tinto, Rioja, SpainA classic long-aged Rioja, Valserrano Gran Reserva delivers ripe cherry and raspberry tempered by cedar, tobacco, leather and subtle smoke. With silky, polished tannins and lively acidity, the palate reveals layers of dark fruit, mountain herbs, mineral accents and savoury spice, ending in a long, elegant finish.                                                                        | £41.00 |
| 76 | Miguel Merino Vitola Rioja Reserva, Rioja, Spain (V+)This Reserva bursts with ripe dark fruit—blackberry, black cherry—woven with savoury notes of cedar, cola, tobacco and earthy forest floor. The palate is medium-bodied with polished tannins and lively acidity, concluding with a lingering finish of fruit and spice. A beautifully balanced expression of Rioja Alta finesse.                                                       | £45.50 |
| 77 | Miguel Merino La Insula, Rioja, Spain (V+)A captivating single-vineyard Garnacha from ungrafted, pre-phyloxera vines, this wine boasts an elegant nose of wild strawberry, rose petal, ginger and clove. On the palate, it is structured yet refined—with pomegranate, fresh red fruit, subtle iron and earthy notes framed by finely grained tannins and a gentle herbal spice. A nuanced, floral Rioja that bridges tradition and finesse. | £75.00 |

PORTUGAL

Bottle

|    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |        |
|----|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| 78 | Dom Salvador Alvarinho, Vinho Verde, PortugalBursting with fresh citrus aromas like grapefruit, lemon and pineapple peel all entwined with delicate orange blossom. On the palate it's bright, softly textured and slightly velvety, revealing juicy stone fruit notes of nectarine and passionfruit. A crisp minerality and refreshing acidity carry through a clean, lingering finish. | £19.00 |
| 79 | Casa Do Passarella Somontes Colheita Branco, Dão, Portugal (V+)Vibrant floral and citrus notes dominate the nose complemented by subtle hints of orchard fruits and minerality. Crisp and refreshing with flavours of green apple, lime and a delicate nutty undertone. The wine is balanced by lively acidity and a mineral-driven finish.                                              | £15.50 |
| 80 | Portal da Calcada Patusco DOC, Vinho Verde, Portugal (V+)Pale citrus-yellow with greenish highlights, showing fresh lemon/lime and light orchard fruit. On the palate it's crisp, clean and slightly pétillant, finishing bright and thirst-quenching.                                                                                                                                   | £13.00 |
| 81 | Casa Do Passarella Somontes Colheita Tinto, Dão, Portugal (V)Full of red berry fruit aromas with earthy undertones. Fermented in stainless steel with no oak ageing. Elegant with a firm acidity and grippy tannins.                                                                                                                                                                     | £15.50 |
| 82 | Quinta do Portal Colheita Red, Douro, Portugal (V+)This wine is full bodied with intense aromas of young fresh fruit and floral notes. Excellent freshness, toasty and appetising in the mouth with an attractive and elegant finish.                                                                                                                                                    | £22.50 |
| 83 | Dão Tinto, 'Gandarada', Boas Quintas, Portugal (V+)Rich and fruity red with elegant floral notes. Ripe black fruit and gentle spice with soft tannins. Very easy going.                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | £13.50 |

REST OF EUROPE

Bottle

|    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |        |
|----|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| 84 | Lyrarakis Vilana White, Crete, Greece (V+)Pale yellow hue. Citrus fruits and floral notes with hints of pear and apple. Full-bodied with refreshing acidity, complemented by herbal undertones and a soft, creamy texture, leading to a vibrant finish.                                                                                                                     | £18.50 |
| 85 | Lyrarakis Assyrtiko Voila, Crete, Greece (V+)Aromas of wild flowers and citrus fruit introduce the wine, followed by herbs, stone fruit and chalky texture on the palate. Hints of saline minerality give the wine a divine richness and great staying power. Crisp and refreshing.                                                                                         | £19.00 |
| 86 | Gilvesy Sauvignon Blanc, Badacsony, Hungary (V+)Crafted from volcanic soils on Szent György Hill, this Sauvignon Blanc weaves minerality and elegance. Delicate aromas of bruised apple, lemon peel and dried acacia petals lead to a palate layered with crisp citrus, green apple, gentle herbal notes and a lingering saline finish—pure, refreshing and terroir-driven. | £22.50 |
| 87 | Organic Gilvesy St. George, Badacsony, Hungary (O,V+)A blend of Furmint, Rhine Riesling and Olaszrizling fermented in tanks and 500-litre Hungarian barrels. Aromas of pear, apple, lemon with hints of minerals. Round and cheerful on the palate with a long mineral finish.                                                                                              | £24.50 |

|    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |        |
|----|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| 88 | Vismino Grand Saperavi, Telavi, Georgia (V+)Ripe blackcurrant and cherry notes perfectly balanced with a pleasant oak influence of gentle spice and soft but well structured tannins.                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | £19.00 |
| 89 | Salzl Grüner Veltliner, Burgenland, Austria (V+)This wine opens with aromas of ripe green apple and hints of elderflower followed by zesty lemon and subtle spice. On the palate, it's vibrant with flavours of grapefruit and stone fruits like peach, complemented by a touch of white pepper and fresh herbal nuances like nettles. The finish is clean, mineral-driven and refreshing.              | £19.00 |
| 90 | Salzl Zweigelt, Neusiedlersee DAC, Austria (V+)A dark ruby colour with vibrant violet highlights. The nose bursts with juicy aromas of cherries and plums, balanced by subtle herbal notes and a hint of bitter chocolate. A full-bodied wine with soft, yet present tannins, flavours of cherries, red berries and tobacco. A long and lingering finish, accented by salty minerality and fine spices. | £20.00 |

NEW WORLD WHITE

Bottle

|     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |        |
|-----|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| 91  | Casa Silva Viognier 'Reserva', Colchagua, Chile (V+)Ripe peach and apricot on the nose which follows through to a rich palate with great intensity and balance.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | £17.50 |
| 92  | Gouguenheim Torrontes, Argentina (V)Golden colour with greenish flashes, indicating its freshness. Strongly aromatic with hints of peach, orange and grapefruit citrus, offering a vibrant and inviting bouquet. Well-bodied with a persistent finish and good acidity. Flavours of juicy peach and zesty lime are complemented by a touch of minerality, leading to a crisp, clean finish.      | £14.00 |
| 93  | Babylonstoren Chardonnay, Simonsberg, South Africa (V+)Offers a beautifully balanced profile with aromas of lemon curd, butter biscuits and subtle oak spice. On the palate, it's creamy yet fresh, showing notes of vanilla and roasted almonds with a gentle minerality and a long, elegant finish.                                                                                            | £28.00 |
| 94  | Roodekrantz 1983 Old Vine Chenin Blanc, Swartland, South Africa (V)Aromatic nose filled with a vibrant mix of tropical and stone fruit notes, including peach, pineapple, papaya, ripe citrus and bruised apple notes. On the palate, these flavours follow through seamlessly, perfectly balanced with a zippy acidity and a subtle oak component that adds an extra dimension.                 | £20.00 |
| 95  | Tokara Director's Reserve White, Stellenbosch, South Africa (V+)Straw colour with flecks of green. Great complexity and a fruit driven character which shines with refreshment. Quince, lemon and passionfruit are balanced well with hints of almond and brioche. A full mouthfeel with impressive texture and a grippy finish. A vivid yet rich white showcasing lots of impressive character. | £33.00 |
| 96  | Corryton Burge Chardonnay, South Australia (V+)Striking aromas of lemon and peach open up to a palate of tropical stone fruit and lemon. A wine with a wonderful richness and mouthfeel that comes together with fine acid balancing the fruit and oak.                                                                                                                                          | £15.50 |
| 97  | Philip Shaw The Dreamer Viognier, Orange, Australia (V)From award winning winemaker Shaw, The Dreamer is light straw yellow in colour with hues of green. Fresh apricots and violets on the nose with lifts of lemon. The palate is bright and fresh with vivid acid and juicy fruit.                                                                                                            | £22.00 |
| 98  | Quartier Chardonnay, Port Philip Estate, Australia (V+)Zesty, cool-climate Chardonnay showing lemon, grapefruit, white nectarine and a touch of flinty smoke. Taut, saline palate with bright citrus acidity, subtle creamy lees texture and restrained oak. Long, mineral, slightly nutty finish.                                                                                               | £25.50 |
| 99  | Cloudy Bay Tekoko Sauvignon Blanc, Marlborough, New Zealand (V)Lychees and almonds with classic gooseberry notes and a hint of wood smoke. A full bodied palate of citrus fruits with the richer flavours of caramel and nougat, leading to a crisp yet spicy finish.                                                                                                                            | £68.00 |
| 100 | Little Beauty Limited Edition Sauvignon Blanc, Marlborough, New ZealandAromas of exotic passionfruit, ripe guava, mango and honeydew melon, brightened by herbaceous notes of basil and tomato leaf. Crisp lime and pink grapefruit are balanced by flinty mineral undertones and a touch of smokiness - finishing with juicy, mouthwatering freshness.                                          | £25.00 |
| 101 | Tohu Unoaked Chardonnay, Marlborough, New Zealand (V+)Aromas of ripe nectarine, melon and bright citrus underpinned by complex nutty butterscotch gained from both extended time on lees and malolactic fermentation. On the palate, fresh flavours of peach and tropical fruit are balanced with subtle creaminess and great length, leading to a smooth and focused finish.                    | £20.00 |

|     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |        |
|-----|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| 102 | Radburnd Cellars Chardonnay, Hawke's Bay, New Zealand (V)An elegant Chardonnay which focuses on the beautiful structure so evident in this grape variety. Pristine fruit and balanced acidity are the backbone, enhanced with seamless texture and mouth feel. Citrus notes, particularly grapefruit pith, are gracefully supported by sweet French oak. | £49.00 |
|-----|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|

NEW WORLD RED

Bottle

|     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |        |
|-----|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| 103 | Roodekrantz Vineyard Selection Pinotage, Western Cape, South Africa (V+)On the nose, red plum and wild berry fruits, which continue on the palate with just a touch of oak to complement the flavours. A great, refined expression of Pinotage.                                                                                                                                                                  | £17.50 |
| 104 | Babylonstoren Cabernet Sauvignon, Simonsberg, South Africa (V+)Aromas of ripe blackcurrant and dark berries intertwine with hints of wild herbs, graphite and cedar. On the palate, it delivers plump blackcurrant fruit balanced by fine-grained, grippy tannins. The finish is savoury, long and satisfying.                                                                                                   | £23.50 |
| 105 | Clos Malverne Reserve Auret, Devon Valley, Stellenbosch, South Africa (V+)Layers of sensuous red fruits meld seamlessly with nuanced notes of clove, cinnamon and a gentle hint of cedar from its 12–13 months ageing in French oak barrels. The dry, well integrated tannins provide a firm backbone, offering structure, while the acidity remains vibrant. A rich, enduring finish with lingering warm spice. | £25.00 |
| 106 | Babylonstoren Shiraz, Simonsberg, South Africa (V+)This deep ruby red Shiraz opens with enticing aromas of blackcurrant, complemented by undertones of new leather, wood spice and a hint of white pepper. On the palate, it delivers a full-bodied experience, balancing chocolate intensity with refined finesse, leading to a lingering, hedonistic finish.                                                   | £24.50 |
| 107 | Queen of the Hive Shiraz Mataro, Paxton, McLaren Vale, Australia (O,V+)A bouquet of bright red fruits with raspberry, cherry and cranberry at the forefront, subtle hints of earthy spice and a delicate floral undertone. Lively and complex with a full-bodied texture balanced by a refreshing acidity.                                                                                                       | £21.00 |
| 108 | Stanton & Killeen Tempranillo, Rutherglen, Australia (V+)Complex with rose petal, dark cherry juice and cranberry aromas with some light cedar spices. A balanced palate with soft flavours of cherries, dark plums and a backbone of light tannins that extend through to a long and refreshing finish.                                                                                                         | £26.50 |
| 109 | Payten & Jones Valley Vignerons Sangiovese, Yarra Valley, Australia (O,V+)Medium garnet in colour with a black cherry and plum nose. On the palate, there are notes of leather and dark chocolate along with touches of smoke. Chewy tannins and impressive full mouthfeel and structure.                                                                                                                        | £28.00 |
| 110 | Quartier Pinot Noir, Port Philip Estate, Australia (V+)Bright mid ruby Pinot with lifted aromas of strawberry, raspberry, cranberry and a little earthy spice. Silky, medium-bodied palate of juicy red fruit, fine tannin and lively acidity.                                                                                                                                                                   | £27.00 |
| 111 | Kaesler Reach for the Sky, Barossa Valley, Australia (V+)Rich, plush Barossa Shiraz full of ripe blueberry, black plum and dark cherry with notes of mocha and liquorice. Full-bodied and velvety in texture with soft, rounded tannins and gentle oak. Generous, spicy, fruit-driven finish.                                                                                                                    | £26.00 |
| 112 | Sidewood Shiraz, Adelaide Hills, AustraliaA deep, dark-purple Shiraz that greets the nose with ripe blackberry, dark plum and a touch of violet, white pepper, and espresso/chocolate. The palate is rich yet elegant, melding juicy dark fruit with baking spice, leather and refined silky tannins, leading to a long, structured finish.                                                                      | £22.00 |
| 113 | Amy's, Moss Wood, Margaret River, Australia (V+)Deep, vibrant Margaret River red blend with blueberry, blackberry and redcurrant fruit, plus hints of chocolate, cedar and rose. Medium-full body with supple tannin and a touch of oak giving polish and texture.                                                                                                                                               | £23.50 |
| 114 | Te Kano Landwalker Pinot Noir, Central Otago, New Zealand (V+)Vibrant and expressive with aromas of red cherry, raspberry and earthy undertones. The palate showcases fine tannins, juicy acidity and a silky texture, leading to a lingering finish with subtle oak influence and a hint of spice.                                                                                                              | £43.00 |
| 115 | Radburnd Cellars Syrah, Hawke's Bay, New Zealand (V)An elegant syrah with red and exotic fruits supported by a backbone of spice and fine tannins. Lingering blueberry compote and cardamon spice on the finish.                                                                                                                                                                                                 | £45.00 |

|     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |        |
|-----|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| 116 | Domain Road 'Bannockburn' Pinot Noir, Central Otago, New Zealand (V)Ripe strawberries on the nose as well as plum and Christmas cake spice. Well-balanced acidity and a high class finish with fine savoury tannins.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | £28.00 |
| 117 | Casa Silva Microterroir Carmenere, Colchagua, Chile (V+)Sensational depth of flavour. Black fruit and coffee aromas with a harmonious structure of soft tannins and excellent length. Savoury chocolate and black pepper spice.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | £39.50 |
| 118 | Casarena Lauren Single Vineyard Cabernet Franc, Agrelo, Argentina (V+)A vivid purple hue with red highlights hints at the intensity to come. The nose delivers a bold varietal signature, brimming with ripe red and black fruits and a touch of capsicum. On the palate, it's smooth and richly textured with layered flavours unfolding tobacco, spice and lush fruit all carried by a powerful yet well-balanced structure. Complex and compelling from start to finish. | £34.50 |
| 119 | Abras Malbec, Cafayate Valley Salta, Argentina (V+)Vibrant aromas of fresh plum, violet, blueberry and crushed stone set the tone with a distinct mineral edge adding complexity. The palate is full bodied yet lively, bursting with bright fruit and supported by firm, silky tannins that bring structure and finesse.                                                                                                                                                   | £24.00 |
| 120 | Phelps Creek Cuvée Alexandrine Pinot Noir, Oregon, USAAn elegantly structured Oregon Pinot with vivid red-fruit aromas—cherry, raspberry and blackberry—layered with forest-floor, tobacco, earthy spice and a subtle balsamic nuance. The palate is medium-bodied with lively acidity, supple tannins and layered complexity. Flavours of cooked cherry, black tea and cedar carry through into a lingering, savoury-fresh finish.                                         | £60.50 |
| 121 | Othello Napa Valley Red, USA (V)An unusually high proportion of Petit Verdot (11%) brings a delicate floral character to this attractive cherry and sage flavoured wine as well as a peppery note to the soft appealing finish.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | £57.00 |

Organic = (O) Vegan = (V+) Vegetarian = (V)

Wine Supplied By

SOVEREIGN WINES
INDEPENDENT MERCHANT

Fosse Way, Dinnington, Hinton St George TA17 8SX

dinningtondocks.com